WAGE EARNER'S SHARE

Wages Do Not Keep Pace With Advancing Prices,

SALT LAKE CONDITIONS

COST OF LIVING ADVANCED 20 PER CENT.

as everywhere else, these days, figur-ing hard to determine where their share of the great wave of prosperity comes They know that the country is Carnegie scattering libraries broadcast as a farmer scatters oats; they read of J. Pierpont Morgan playing with transcontinental railroad systems as boys play with kite strings; they read about a trade balance so heavy that it is liable to throw the earth out of its orbit things, and still they find it difficult to pay the bills, and they naturally wonder where the screw is loose. The trouble is that when prosperity comes, wages are always the last thing to be touched, and this is the case in Salt Lake at the present time. People know that living is higher; that they are paying more for rent, fuel, groceries, meat, fruit, 'vegetables, cluthing, tools, furniture—for all the necessities of life than they paid before the wave came; but they know equally well that except in isolated cases, wages are no higher, so that the problem of living is just as hard and just as complicated as before. It is true that there are more people at work, but this does not make the problem of making both ends meet any easier for the individual member of society.

Wages at a Standstill.

Wages at a Standstill. Wages at a Standstill.

So far as a careful investigation reveals, there has been no increase in wages in Salt Lake in the past two years except in a few cases where organized labor enforced its demands and secured an increase of not more than 19 per cent. But with the great army of unskilled labor—the common day laborers, the railway employees, the clerks, the men on fixed salaries—there has been no change for the better, and has been no change for the better, and these men are working for practically the same stipends they were receiving two years ago. In no line of labor has the increase in wages kept pace with the increase in the cost of living.

Increase in Cost of Living. The increase in the retail price of many of the standard articles of commerce since the trusts got in their work two years ago may be stated in the following figures:

Canned goods, 20 per cent; groceries, 29 per cent; tobacco, 35 per cent; coal oil, 50 per cent; tobacco, 35 per cent; coal oil, 50 per cent; table salt, 50 per cent; coal oil, 50 per cent; thams, 20 per cent; bacon, 20 per cent; lumber, 60 per cent; bacon, 20 per cent; lumber, 60 per cent; structural iron, 100 per cent; stoves, 25 per cent; clothing, 20 per cent; dry goods, 29 per cent; oat meal, 80 per cent; agricultural imple thents, 40 per cent; wagons, 40 per cent; from pipe, 200 per cent; thouse, 50 per cent; tools, 60 per cent; horse shoes, 150 per cent; from pipe, 200 per cent; thouse, 25 per cent; tools, 60 per cent; hardware in general, 50 per cent house rent, 25 per cent; shoes, 25 per cent; takes, 20 per cent; from hardware in general, 50 per cent fresh meats, 30 per cent; fruit and vegetables, 25 per cent.

Average of 20 Per Cent.

Average of 20 Per Cent.

It is the conservative opinion of observant men in many lines of business that lifing on the whole is fully 20 per cent higher for people in the ordinary walks of life today than it was two years ago. In other words, a man must pay now $1.20 for what he bought two years ago for $1, or, to put it another way, he must work six days now for two years ago. This applies to groceries, dry goods, hardware, furniture, neats, clothing, building material, shoes, rent, taxes, fuel and light. His dollar mow will bring home from the market only about four-fifths as much as his dollar would two years ago. If he builds he can ret as good a house now for $2.000 as ne could have built for $1,600 two years ago; if he rents he must pay $25 per month for the house that cost him $20 two years ago. Those are some of the reasons why there are so many people in this community today figuring so closely on the ways and means. There is no doubt that prospertiy is upon us, but many people are perity is upon us, but many people are losing confidence in the system of distribution.
